

10th
SYMPOSIUM
DÜRNSTEIN

MARCH 4-6,
2021

EDUCATION AS NOURISHMENT:
OUR NEEDS IN VOLATILE
TIMES

Minoritenkirche Krems/Stein, Minoritenplatz 2, 3500 Krems an der Donau

Schedule

Thursday, March 4, 2021

06:00 – 06:05 PM

Opening

Barbara Schwarz, Managing Director of NÖ- Forschungs- und Bildungsges.m.b.H (NFB)

06:05 – 06:15 PM

Greetings from the cooperation partners of the Symposium Dürnstein

Doris Denk, Head of Education, Culture and Tourism Krems; Friedrich Faulhammer, Rector of Danube University Krems; Rudolf Mallinger, Rector of Karl Landsteiner Private University Health Sciences; Petrus Stockinger, Propst of Herzogenburg Abbey; Andreas Weissenböck, Vice-Rector of KPH Vienna/Krems

06:15 – 06:20 PM

Opening video message

Governor Johanna Mikl-Leitner

06:20 – 06:50 PM

Podium Discussion A region that relies on knowledge: ancient culture meets modern thinking. 10 years of Symposium Dürnstein

The founders: Ursula Baatz, Maximilian Fürnsinn CanReg, Erwin Pröll, Barbara Schwarz, Martin Vogg,

06:50 – 07:00 PM

Lecture Education as a human right

Ursula Baatz, curator of the Symposium Dürnstein

07:00 – 08:30 PM

Lecture “Allow not nature more than nature needs, Man’s life’s as cheap as beast’s“ (Shakespeare, King Lear)

Michael Köhlmeier, Writer, Hohenems/Vienna

Moderation and discussion with Michael Köhlmeier: Katja Gasser, journalist and winner of the State Prize for Literary Criticism

Patron of honor: Governor Johanna Mikl-Leitner

Between the individual presentations, there will be opportunities for discussion in virtual breakout rooms via Zoom

Virtual Exhibition: The “Bildungsbuffet“ – an artistic discussion of the students of the KPH Vienna/Krems – complements the Symposium Dürnstein with a surprising and stimulating feast for the eyes, guided by Sigrid Pohl

Friday, March 5, 2021

09:30 – 09:40 AM

Presentation of pre-scientific works and diploma theses on the topic of Education as Nourishment
High school graduates in Lower Austrian schools

09:40 – 11:00 AM

Lecture Education in the digital age: why aesthetics?
Birgitta Fuchs, Educational scientist, TU Dortmund University

11:00 – 11:30 AM

Break

11:30 – 12:00 PM

Lecture A plea for the protection of unborn thoughts at universities
Christoph Paret, Institute of Philosophy, University of Vienna

12:00 – 12:30 PM

Lecture Culture and education in the mirror of human rights as a central pillar of society
Florian Krumpöck, pianist and conductor

12:30 – 01:00 PM

Podium Discussion Right to education
Christoph Paret and Florian Krumpöck in conversation; moderated by Doris Helmberger-Fleckl, editor-in-chief of the weekly newspaper DIE FURCHE

01:00 – 02:30 PM

Break

02:30 – 03:15 PM

Lecture Education in nature. Nature-relatedness through wilderness pedagogy
Sebastian Pfütze, biologist and environmental scientist, certified wilderness educator www.wildniswissen.de

03:15 – 04:30 PM

Lecture Generating Meaning in Moving. Why Bodies are relevant
Gabriele Klein, Sociologist and cultural scientist

04:30 – 05:00 PM

Break

05:00 – 05:20 PM

Impulse Lecture Domestication of knowledge, self-enlightenment of society. About religious education
Jakob Deibl, Ass. Prof. at the Faculty of Catholic Theology of the University of Vienna, Scientific Manager of the Research Center Religion and Transformation in Contemporary Society, University of Vienna

05:20 – 05:40 PM

Lecture Education of interruption
Jakob Reichenberger, Director of the Bildungshaus St. Virgil Salzburg

05:40 – 06:00 PM

Lecture From image to education

Cornelia Mooslechner-Brüll, philosophical practitioner, Baden near Vienna

06:00 – 06:30 PM

Podium Discussion Education means posing questions

Jakob Deibl, Jakob Reichenberger and Cornelia Mooslechner-Brüll in conversation; moderated by Doris Helmberger-Fleckl, editor-in-chief of the weekly newspaper DIE FURCHE

Moderator and discussion facilitator: Joachim Schwendenwein, organizational consultant

Between the individual presentations, there will be opportunities for discussion in virtual breakout rooms via Zoom

Virtual Exhibition: The “Bildungsbuffet“ – an artistic discussion of the students of the KPH Vienna/Krems – complements the Symposium Dürnstein with a surprising and stimulating feast for the eyes, guided by Sigrid Pohl

Saturday, March 6, 2021

09:30 – 09:40 AM

Presentation of pre-scientific works and diploma theses on the topic of Education as Nourishment

High school graduates in Lower Austrian schools

09:40 – 11:00 AM

Lecture Education for Europe

Timothy Snyder, Historian and Yale Professor

11:00 – 11:30 AM

Break

11:30 – 12:00 PM

Lecture Education, a child’s play! The play instinct as a basic condition for educational processes

Andrea Zsutty, art historian, Director of the Zoom Children’s Museum, Vienna

12:00 – 12:30 PM

Lecture Aesthetic education – art projects by students of the KPH Vienna/Krems for the Symposium Dürnstein

Sigrid Pohl, University of Applied Arts and The University College of Teacher Education Vienna/Krems (KPH)

12:30 – 01:00 PM

Lecture Superar: Overcoming boundaries with music

Andy Icochea Icochea, conductor and artistic director of Superar International

01:00 – 02:30 PM

Break

02:30 – 03:00 PM

Lecture Mental resilience from the perspective of positive psychology: Impulses from science and practice

Leonie Ascone Michelis, clinical psychologist at the University Medical Center Hamburg-Eppendorf, Neuronal Plasticity Research Group

03:00 – 03:30 PM

Lecture Relationships in the digital space

Jennifer Nicolay, Business Ethicist & Corporate Coordinator JOBLINGE gSG, Frankfurt a.M.

03:30 – 04:00 PM

Lecture Education and the migration society: challenges and perspectives

Kenan Dogan Güngör, sociologist and political consultant, head of the research office think.difference, Vienna

04:00 – 05:00 PM

Podium Discussion Closing Discussion: How education for all can succeed

Leonie Ascone Michelis, Jennifer Nicolay and Kenan Dogan Güngör in conversation; moderated by Joachim Schwendenwein

Moderator and discussion facilitator: Joachim Schwendenwein, organizational consultant

Between the individual presentations, there will be opportunities for discussion in virtual breakout rooms via Zoom

Virtual Exhibition: The “Bildungsbuffet“ – an artistic discussion of the students of the KPH Vienna/Krems – complements the Symposium Dürnstein with a surprising and stimulating feast for the eyes, guided by Sigrid Pohl.

The schedule may be subject to change.